Nice one Johnny Rotten!

"I never thought I'd live to see the day when the right wing would become the cool ones giving the middle finger to the establishment, and the left wing became the sniveling self-righteous twatty ones going around shaming everyone."

John Lydon aka Johnny Rotten of the Sex Pistols. Now living in the USA.

Free thinker, artist, singer, songwriter.

In the scheme of things Brexit was a small dragon. There are much bigger beasts waiting to teach us the mother of all lessons for 'stepping out of line'. Obviously it is extremely unlikely that, to put it mildly, our enemies will ever again make such a misjudgment or "democratic error" in OUR favour. We, obviously, cannot be trusted to do as housebroken sheeple should.

That is part of the joy of being a Briton. Just another thing our alien rulers will never understand.

NOW we must define ourselves as being more than British passport holders. Which could be anyone who can scream the word "asseeelumm" on reaching the shores of the British Isles. Having crossed a dozen other borders to get here and been helped on their way by the various governments concerned.

We are BRITONS. Blood and Soil Britons. WE define ourselves. Our enemies do not NOT define us.

The passport definition "British" has not applied for decades. Certainly not since 1948.

Our enemies wish to deny us the right to call ourselves an indigenous people such is their hatred and, it is such a vitriolic hatred, we can see how it shows in their faces when they talk of us. Always with a sneer. We must keep a light heart and remember these words of the Bard, who was both born and died on April 23rd:

"Advance our standards, set upon our foes;
Our ancient word of courage, fair Saint George,
Inspire us with the spleen of fiery dragons!"

4 Charged over Statue Toppling in Bristol

Four people have been charged with criminal damage over the 'toppling' of the statue of Edward Colston in Bristol in June 2020. Their trial is scheduled for April.

The statue of 17th-century slave trader Colston was pushed into Bristol harbour, on June 7th 2020, during a Black Lives Matter protest.

The four charged are Rhian Graham, 29, Jake Skuse, 32, Sage Willoughby,21 and best of all Milo Ponsford, 25. (The name Sage is ambiguous, to this writer anyway, but in photo is, perhaps, attempting to grow a beard.

Looking at their images on the internet all the defendants appear to be quite white which must be a source of much regret to them. Five others accepted a conditional caution,for the offence of causing criminal damage to property valued under £5,000, which appears to have been specially tailored just for them.

Under the conditions of the caution, they had to complete a questionnaire from a 'history commission' set up by Bristol City Council. They had to pay a fine of £100, which would be sent to Bristol-based charity Nilaari*, and take part in two hours of enviromental improvement works also arranged by the Council.

Nilaari in Tamil apparently means 'well-being. In this case Nilaari is a Black, Asian and Minority Ethnic (BAME) led community-based charity. It seems they treat 'Uni' students with problems "White counsellors don't understand."

To defend national sovereignty against the menace of international finance
ENGLAND
AND SAINT GEORGE

The cover of the April 1995 issue of Candour that helped send Darcus Howe on his way from Oldham, "with a feeling of dread", as he wrote in a New Statesman article

Leighton Rhett Radford "Darcus" Howe, who died in 2017, was born in Trinidad and was a broadcaster, writer and black radical who, no surprise, always managed to find a MSM outlet for his views. A former British Black Panther and, always, anti-white agitator he was a familiar negro voice and face for a long time with the Liberal Marxist media and in print. Channel 4 in particular gave him free range to express himself. He had TV shows such as Devil's Advocate and White Tribe in which he apparently "put Anglo - Saxon Britain under the spotlight".

The premise usually being that here was a 'black intellectual' and that we Britons were a sub tribe of some sort that he found at turns thick, amusing, violent and hopeless.

In the June 28, 1999, issue of the New Statesman Howe described how whilst on a tour of the North West of England, all the while sounding like a black Dr. Livingstone, and we know how many converts he made on his travels, he arrived in the town of Nelson in Lancashire. At the time, and to the present, racial conflict was a big problem with large aggressive Pakistani gangs and, of course, 'grooming'.

"I talked to poor, very poor, whites. They were preparing for bloodshed they told me. This is a stronghold of the fascist group, Combat 18. A young woman terrified me. She talked herself into a frenzy about Pakistani filth, their personal habits. I wince as I write.

She dashed indoors to bring out a broadsheet published by The A.K. Chesterton Trust : the cross of St. George was smack bang in the middle of the front page, red as the blood which she threatened..."

That lady was Sylvia Noble, a Candour subscriber, sadly now passed. Always have a copy of Candour to hand is the lesson. Send us a fiver and we will send you another 3 copies of, THIS issue, 875, to have handy. You never know who may walk down you street... and meet a Sylvia Noble...

Editorial

Hello. This is Rob Black again. My retirement as Editor was short lived indeed. With Colin Todd finding his feet I am back for a few more issues. Colin is supporting and advising me.
Under my ongoing editorship Candour will continue with our mantra, "SURVIVAL NOW GROWTH." (If you have something to say, why not submit an article?).
That especially means increased regularity of our publication.
Candour has always aimed at being a common ground, a village green, for enthusiastic nationalists and free thinkers of all ages. Something for us all to remember and fight for as we acclimatise to the dystopian New Normal and conditions continue to deteriorate for true Britons.

As I write this more nails are being driven into the coffin lid of FREE SPEECH.

As for PROTESTING about that,or indeed anything else, the State have that covered too. (See page 5).

The words 'kafkaesque' and 'Orwellian' are often over and/or misused. They have different meanings but are both clearly happening and now there is finally a 'coming together'.

One similarity is that with both 'authority and or the state' use words in a way that makes them meaningless.

The story of how we all ended up in the land of Dystopia should be well enough know, just look back, and has been thoroughly covered by Candour since 1953. It is enough to know that we have arrived.

* * * *

The mail that Colin received while imprisoned included print outs of quotations that he put on his cell walls to read while exercising. Some of these are on this page as is a message from Colin to subscribers and readers.

We are looking at the possibility of a permanent discount on our books and merchandise for those who subscribe to Candour. Something which would make the act of subscribing more worthwhile. Our business cards which advertise Candour and some of our back issues should be back in stock soon too.
There is nothing we can do about the 'Great Lock Down'. That is not to say we cannot do ANYTHING.

Wishing you all a Great St. George's Day this April 23rd!
Rob Black - Temporary Candour Editor.
Yours in Candour.

To all Candour subscribers and friends from Colin Todd
My time in prison is done but that does NOT mean that the 'system' is done with me. Unfortunately.
A very big thank you to those who corresponded with me, sent me money towards my canteen, JC who took out a two year subscription to Private Eye magazine on my behalf. All the card senders, the lady whose postcard reached me simply signed 'Racist granny', and the rest. Thank you all. You helped keep me going.

I also remember those comrades I shall never see or hear from again who all fell in 2020 - 2021. Richard Edmonds,Eddy Morrison and John Harwood,

From Fahrenheit 451
by Ray Bradbury

" 'Why do you trust me ?' said Montag.
A man moved in the darkness.
'The look of you's enough. You haven't seen yourself in a mirror lately. Beyond that, the city has never cared so much about us to bother with an elaborate chase like this to find us. A few crackpots with verses in their heads can't touch them, and they know it and we know it; everyone knows it. So long as the vast population doesn't wander about quoting the Magna Charta and the Constitution, it's all right. The firemen were enough to check that, now and then. No, the cities don't bother us . And you look like hell.'
They moved along the bank of the river, going south. Montag tried to see the men's faces, the old faces he remembered from the firelight, lined and tired. He was looking for a brightness, a resolve, a triumph over tomorrow that hardly seemed to be there. Perhaps he had expected their faces to burn and glitter with the knowledge they carried, to glow as lanterns glow, with the light in them. But all the light had come from the camp fire, and these men had seemed no different from any others who had run a long race, searched a long search, seen good things destroyed, and now, very late, were gathering to wait for the end of the party and the blowing out of the lamps.. They weren't at all certain that the things they carried in their heads might make every future dawn glow with a purer light, they were sure of nothing save that the books were on file behind their quiet eyes, the books were waiting, with their pages uncut, for the customers who might come by in later years, some with clean and some with dirty fingers.
Montag squinted from one face to another as they walked.
'Don't judge a book by its cover', someone said.
And they all laughed quietly, moving downstream."

No Enemies

You have no enemies, you say?
Alas! my friend, the boast is poor;
He who has mingled in the fray
Of duty, that the brave endure,
Must have made foes! If you have none,
Small is the work that you have done.
You've hit no traitor on the hip,
You've dashed no cup from perjured lip,
You've never turned the wrong to right,
You've been a coward in the fight.

How about that for a defence of Free Speech!

An American's View: It is NOT all Gloom and Doom!

Yuri from Missouri, ex-USN

On "my side": One hundred percent of every patriot I know, from marshmallowy "Republican" family members to my most radical National Socialist pen-pals... EVERYBODY is all out Gloom and Doom, Gloom and Doom, it's all over bar the starvation and brand new Gulags!

Since "things" are never completely what they seem, I'll lay out my view for you. One brine-soaked thought after another.

The recent American "General Election" was a watershed event. What really happened? This amazing character, Donald Trump, won the election - HE WON IT - completely and in convincing fashion, and THIS because he delivered heavy-duty Populism to Americans for five years (one year of campaigning and four years in the White House).

In 2016 Trump defeated Hillary Clinton and did so with CONVINCING majorities in America's so-called "Electoral College." This is most significant because Hillary Clinton is, 'THE MESSIAH'. No, no kidding, Hillary is 'The Messiah' to every lefty-pink in the entire world. She is a DIETY, God's communist representative on earth. Trump kicked her backside so badly in the 2016 election that the enemy spent three solid years trying to force the Don out of his job with all manner of fallacious charges.

This ghastly Joe Biden is the most wretched, nasty, creature in the history of American politics. In the "campaign" for the November 2020 "general election", worthless buzzard Joe Biden was too ill and lazy to campaign, and spent nearly all of CY 2020 in his bloody basement.

Even in the climate of the ridiculous "Covid" and "Coronavirus" hoaxes, Donald Trump rallied MILLIONS of followers to massive rallies all over the United States. This included MILLIONS of non-white followers. Huge numbers of Blacks and Mestizos turned out to rally for Trump and to vote for him.

Thus Trump actually won the 2020 election by a landslide where it can easily be shown that he won 40 of America's 50 states.

The Marxist Liberal enemy media and some well-picked Communist state Governors performed massive voter fraud that has never been seen before in America. They printed up MILLIONS of phony, forged paper, mail-in election ballots, and delivered at least six states to 'Buzzard' Biden. Without these six states (Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, Nevada, Georgia, Michigan and Arizona) Trump's "electoral college" total easily wins.

The same Marxist enemy also utilized the hideous *Dominion Software to deliberately mis-count and falsify votes in at least 20 of America's 50 states. Thus even MORE states in the US of A should have been counted for Donald Trump. These include "Democratic Stronghold" states like New York, Illinois, Washington, Oregon, Colorado, Minnesota and Virginia.

Counting up all of the states stolen from Trump between mail-fraud ballots and Dominion Software, Trump wins forty of the fifty American states. This is almost as huge a landslide as Richard Nixon had in 1972 when he won 49 of the 50 states from the ultra-Communist George McGovern.

On election night (November 3, 2020), all of America and most of the world was treated to the sight of twelve states suddenly changing from Trump to Biden at exactly 11pm, his local time, THE ENTIRE SYSTEM TURNED ON TRUMP.

So we have the biggest and most egregious case of Massive Treason in American history. On January 6, 2021, over three million Trump supporters crammed their way into Washington DC to protest the stolen election. (This writer was one of them). There we witnessed fantastic treachery and treason like never before, when the entire Legislature and "Vice President" Mike Pence again refused to examine any evidence, nor arrange for any investigation.

Now Communist Biden, who lost the election in a huge landslide, is passing decrees to have our manufacturing shipped to China and Pakistan and, with Hate-White-People, made the new law of the land.

But "my side" refuses to acknowledge the fact that Middle America - the Middle Class and most of the Working Class - turned out to support Donald Trump. He got some 71 million votes. 'Slimy' Joe at best some 55 million votes and his margin of 'victory' all came from the aforementioned frauds and chicanery.

The US of A is hurtling toward a Civil War condition. But it sure ruffles my feathers to hear fellow nationalists and patriots spout, and even worse spread, the nonsense that "America has voted for Marxism" and "rejected Donald Trump." It's so profoundly NOT TRUE! America voted for Donald Trump by huge majorities.

It just won't sink in with so many people.

Trump defeated Hillary Clinton in a fair fight in 2016. Clinton is the darling of the left wing establishment worldwide. Trump kicked her Communist backside and decisively so.

Trump did NOT lose to Joe Biden in 2020. Far from it. The Office of President of the United States was handed to Biden on a silver platter.

So now we're all going to die and all we patriots should do is bend over and kiss ourselves goodbye. Gloom and Doom! Gloom and Doom! All Hail Gloom and Doom! Going all Gloom and Doom is just what the Marxist Liberal enemy wants us to do.

It is so wrong! I went to twelve different huge Trump rallies and "freedom gatherings" that were each attended by as many as ten thousand souls. Most of them White but with lots of non-whites too.

There are tens of millions of us and we are BLISTERING hot mad. I am one of them!

NOW IS THE TIME TO BE STRONG AND POSITIVE! Bring it on!

The Continuing Destruction of ALL Protest & Free Speech for Britons

Remember: They never know how far is too far until it's too late!

By Colin Todd

The column on the right of this page shows how the law could (will) be able to even further crush free thinking and the expression of such in the near future.
Below are a few notes on The Police, Crime Sentencing and Court Bill (2021) which has recently passed its Second Reading in the Commons on the way to becoming Law.

Miss Rosine de Bounevialle, Editor of Candour from 1974 until her death on Christmas Day 1999, would remind us when spirits were low, that eventually they always over reach themselves.

Those who have no self awareness cannot limit their ambition. Therefore they only come to understand the limits of their behaviour once they have gone too far.

Having encountered only minimal protest, thus far, to their well organised campaign over decades to totally destroy FREE SPEECH, they are ready to make their latest moves to create their dystopian nirvana.

Such is the nature of the beast they will not stop making ever more insidious anti-Briton moves or passing new laws until they are STOPPED.

It is our duty to pour grease on top of the thin black ice OUR NEW UNHAPPY LORDS are shuffling toward so self-assuredly...

The Police, Crime Sentencing and Courts Bill 2021

On Thursday March 11, 2021, Her majesty's Inspectorate of Constabulary and Fire and Rescue Services (HMICFRS) published its plans for the future of policing protests, two days after the government announced proposed new laws granting more powers to the police and Home Secretary.

Among other things, the police, crime sentencing and courts bill will give the Home Secretary powers to create laws to define "serious disruption" to communities and organisations, which police can then rely on to impose conditions on protests.

The HMICFRS report, ordered by Home Secretary, Priti Patel*, outlines a "need to develop" covert intelligence gathering methods (at this rate undercover cops will be the entire membership, and raisers of funds, of some groups) and an expectation of increased use of facial recognition technology.

Emmanuelle Andrews, policy and campaigns officer at Liberty, said: "These plans are a staggering assault on our right to protest as well as an attack on other fundamental rights...

We are still in the grip of a pandemic that has changed all our lives, handed enormous powers to the government and dramatically restricted our protest rights. The proposals in the policing bill are an opportunistic bid by the government to permanently erode our rights."

The following report is from RT UK News (formerly known as Russia Today) 24th February 2021.

Commission calls on UK Government to close loophole that allowed extremists to avoid prosecution

The Commission for Countering Extremism, in a report published February 2021, has called on the UK government to close a loophole that has allowed individuals to spread extremist ideologies and views online without any repercussions or fear of prosecution.

The Commission's recommendation was made after a legal review into the adequacy of existing legislation to combat the issue of hateful extremism was conducted by Sir Mark Rowley, a retired senior police officer who had been in charge of UK Counter Terrorism policing from 2014 to 2018.

"Extremist groups whether neo-fascist, neo-Nazi, Islamist or others are able to operate lawfully, freely and with impunity," Lead Commissioner Sara Khan warned in a statement.

Without action from the government, the Commission laid out how hateful extremists will continue to be able to create "a climate conducive to hate crime, terrorism or other violence" and will be able to attempt "to prod and even destroy the fundamental rights and freedoms of our democratic society."

"This is a threat to our civilised democratic order, which cannot be taken for granted and requires a robust, necessary and proportionate legal response."

As current legislation is primarily aimed at dealing with the threat of terrorism, the Commission explained that extremist activity, from radical Islamism to white supremacy, is not covered by law if it does not cross a threshold of severity.

The Commission is calling on the government to make three changes to rectify the existing failings in the UK's response. The first recommendation is to create a new legal and operational framework to counter hateful extremism, including digital and in-person activity. Secondly, Rowley believes the UK should expand current offences on whipping up hatred, boosting the ability of law enforcement to address it. Finally, the Commission seeks to elevate concerns around hateful extremism, calling on officials to treat it in the same way as terrorism.

The UK government will now consider the findings of the Commission and issue a response to its recommendations in due course.

Dear Editor,

Great to know that Colin is back with us.

I had long wanted to acquire and read Mister Ray Bradbury's novel Fahrenheit 451. I've only seen the film version of it by Mister Francois Truffaut, which I found to be excellent. Well, this morning I found a copy online, bought it and await its arrival. Colin influenced me to do this.

Interestingly enough, I began to read last month (Jan. Ed) a number of books more than I had in ages. Amongst them were three novels of a dystopic nature which are appropriate for the present age we are in, and in many ways touch directly on our lives, although for us not anywhere as of yet, near what you have experienced in your ever interesting life. Colin;

Please keep well and strong; you are not alone.

Focus on the soul and ride the tiger to victory!

God Bless, Aristo Boho

Note from Colin Todd: The full 1966 film, Fahrenheit 451, directed by Francois Truffaut, in English and Colour, is at the time of writing free to view on you tube. Running time some 1hr. 52 mins.
This original movie is true to the novel of the same name by Ray Bradbury first published in 1953. Get a copy while you still can! WARNING, and notice the timing, there is a remake of the movie with a negro lead as Montag, released in 2018.

Dear Editor,

I recently came across a BBC Radio 4 series, Britain's Fascist Thread, broadcast in three parts.

The first episode is primarily about the BUF and Mosley. Second is about the NF with a nod to AK Chesterton and how his influence dominated that of Mosley post war. AK is briefly heard in an interview 1970-ish. The third part is about the BNP with mention of the state-set up group National Action.

Difficult to list what facts were presented as the series is so full of basic errors. Add to that the usual BBC marxist liberal bias. So absolutely no balance.

The reason for the short series seems to be the continued pushing of the idea that nationalists are always the aggressors and justifying the violence of the alien anti-British opposition.

The premise being that when the BUF or NF arranged marches it was to physically attack the community of the area they marched through.

Cobbled together with no editorial proof checker and displaying a complete lack of basic knowledge.

John Tyndal's journal Spearhead is here called Searchlight!

Dear Sir,

On the nationalist scene I feel at times that we are holding high the flag among an ever shrinking circle of patriots.

Through their control of the education system and employment intimidation there appears to be few young recruits willing to join us and help make Britain a better place to live in.

I hope I am wrong,

Best Wishes,

G. Stridiron. Gateshead.

Editor,

According to scientific opinion in the 1970's we are now supposed to be living in a New Ice Age.

Here are a few quotes from some newspaper/magazine headlines. There are many I could mention but the following will suffice:

1970 - Colder Winters Herald Dawn of New Ice Age - Scientists see Ice Age in the Future (The Washington Post, January 11).

1971 - US Scientist sees New Ice Age Coming (The Washington Post, July 9).

1972 - British Climate Expert Predicts New Ice Age (The Christian Science Monitor, September 23).

1972 - Science: Another Ice Age? (Time Magazine, November 13).

1975 - Climate Changes Called Ominous (The New York Times, January 19).

1975 - Scientists Ask Why World Climate is Changing; Major cooling may be ahead (The New York Times, May 21).

Needless to say the scientists got it wrong then, so why are they right now? As Konrad Lorenz* said: "One could not be a scientist without realising that, a goodly number of scientists are not only narrow - minded and dull, but also just stupid." (A-Z Quotes).

Surely God is wiser than all the scientists put together for he says: "I will not curse the ground any more for man's sake... While the earth remaineth, seed time and harvest, and cold and heat, summer and winter, and day and night, shall not cease." Genesis VIII:21,22.

Amen.

Yours Sincerely,

Milton Ellis (Newtown, Wales)

Elephants

By Hereward More

If a man devoted his life to rounding up all the elephants in Europe, Australasia and the Americas, releasing them from the unnatural conditions of circuses and zoos; and then he returned them to their natural habitats in Africa and Asia to live as their kind were made to live, wild and free in the jungles and on the plains, would he not be hailed as the world's greatest friend of the elephant and the truest benefactor of elephant kind?

Now just substitute some other word for 'elephant' and see what sort of reaction he gets then.

Farewell Comrade: John Harwood 1956 - 2021

By Colin Todd

I was shocked to hear that my old comrade, onetime bitter enemy and later reconciled friend, John died on February 4th of this year.

John was a tough man from a hard part of Newcastle Upon Tyne. Elswick in the West End of the city.

When, in 1986, the artificial 'conflict' between the Cadres of the National Front and the Flag Group was engineered we found ourselves on different sides.

I will not go into detail about the extreme violence that ensued, this is not the place, save to say that it was instigated by the vile activities of a few leading, so-called, 'cadres' with the full knowledge of others. 'Compromised', then and now, either directly or by association.

Qui bono.

ALWAYS ask yourself "who benefits?"

John and myself were both strong enough to meet a couple of years later, shake hands and reconcile over this, which with the knowledge of distance and years was a state created artificial division in an area we were really, John and I, making a big impact. Away from London 'central control'.

Over the following years John, a very talented artist, would send me long letters from Newcastle about the toon and its amazing history, a love we shared. I was born in the Royal Victoria Infirmary, behind the old Haymarket which makes me a true Geordie as was John. For a while though from John there was silence. A mutual friend wrote me later to say that John had suffered a stroke. I was stunned.

From here I shall use the words of that friend...

"John had made a canny recovery from his brain haemorrhage, and although not perfect, he could still get around. About nine month ago he was not feeling too good and they took him in for a scan and found cancer in a number of places. He had treatment but continued to get weaker until he passed away in his Benwell home on February the 4th. He never went far from the former white working class area, Elswick, where he grew up and loved its history. He was a good artist and did many sketches to which he added his Geordie poetry. John also painted the Tyneside NF banner and wrote excellent letters to the press.

He was well read and I will miss his company a lot."

Amen, comrade, and those who made us hurt each other will truly pay. I promise you that, John.

Above: 1984. John Harwood and Colin Todd at Todd's NF HQ at 98 Buckingham Street, Elswick, Newcastle Upon Tyne, in the shadow of the football ground. (Colin cannot stress enough the importance of his owning such a base again). Note the headline of the issue of NF News John and Colin are holding between them. POLICE STATE. They both saw it coming and yet both fell for and were deliberately divided from each other by police state tactics.

We must listen to those who REALLY know!

Veteran British nationalists Richard Edmonds and Eddy Morrison also died recently as did white rights campaigner Tom Metzger in America.

Do not be sad for them.

They died after long and very hard years in the struggle WITHOUT EVER bending the knee and always remaining true. They took the worst that our enemies can do to us and laughed in the face of evil. May we all have the same strength to endure what is to come.

Richard Edmonds (1943 - 2020)
Eddy Morrison (1949 - 2020)
Tom Metzger USA (1938 - 2020)
John Harwood (1956 -2021)

What they, all four of our fallen mentioned here, had in common was a complete preparedness to lace up their boots and get out on the streets. For decades. Whatever the nationalist journal or flag in their hand they would be set proudly and say "Here I am and here I stand!"

COMRADES, WE SALUTE YOU!

-an exposure of power politics
by A.K. Chesterton MC
"This text, conceived and executed years before most of the current wave of post - 911 conspiracy theorists were born, sets the gold-standard in taking a surgical scalpel to the self-interest of individuals and groups lurking in the shadows of modern government." Andrew Brons' introduction is as informed and cogent as one might expect from someone steeped in the traditions of the British Right, and even more so now, having held office in Brussels (as a BNP MEP), conducting himself with dignity and gravitas in that surrealist circus of Kafka-esque confusion.
Paperback. £12.00 + P & P. (To order see box opposite).

CANDOUR Extra!

875 April - May 2021 Subscribers Only

As any form of "so-called" extremism (radicalism), but most especially, racial nationalism, is seen as a threat to OUR NEW UNHAPPY LORDS the need for a Pretorian guard of experts and interpreters of OUR history and writings has grown. There is gelt in them thar Prevent hills lying around to be grabbed and a group of writers using the ROUTLEDGE imprint are very busy filling the shelves of the great and the dangerous with their interpretation(s) of US arriving ever more exponentially.

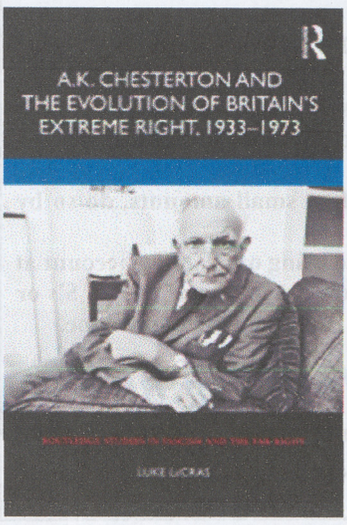
More on this and them in future issues. For the moment though below are details of two of their recent (both first published in 2020) titles. One about AK and the other which features AK.

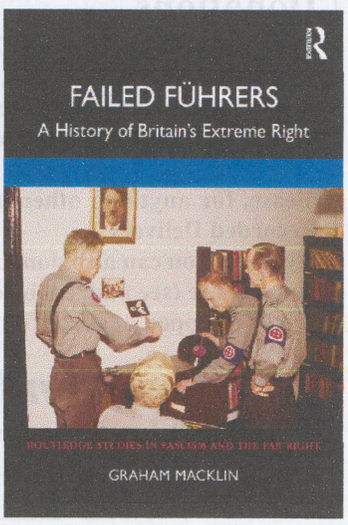
Good research. Their own agenda. What do you expect from the liberal marxist concubines who now teach the politicians, police and armed forces brass "all about us". Armed with the intellectual weight that such books and the others in the range, the Routledge Studies in Fascism and the Far Right, give them. Remember too that they are very heavily backed.

It is a small and cosy tight knit world of characters who call each other Professor, and doubtless 'Sir' one day (who would have thought when I began this adventure that there would be Professors of Football or Stand-Up Comedy?) who endlessly critique and review each others latest works. The mutual praise is never ending. See the endorsements!

A.K. Chesterton and the Evolution of Britain's Extreme Right, 1933 - 1973 by Luke LeCras.
ISBN 9781138624122
180 pages. Paperback. £27.99.

FAILED FÜHRERS: A History of Britain's Extreme Right by Graham Macklin.
ISBN 9780415627306
592 pages. Paperback. £19.99.
This book looks at the lives and careers of six, well it's in the title isn't it. Just to list them, Arnold Leese (1878-1956); Sir Oswald Mosley (1896-1980); A.K. Chesterton (1899-1973); Colin Jordan (1923-2009); John Tyndall (1934-2005); and Nick Gri££in (1959-still around somewhere. 'Compromised' forever).





IF THE FACE FITS...

Alan Turing, a homosexual "martyr", is to be the face on the back of the next version of the £50.00 note "due in circulation before the end of 2021" say the Bank of England.

We know that Turing has been heavily whitewashed, to an agenda, for a long while with a biography published in 1983 and a historically inaccurate film based on the same, The Imitation Game, released in 2014. The, thus, created persona is that of a computer building, war winner and a tortured "gay" genius driven to suicide, in 1952, by a hateful and ungrateful society.

Should we even care whose face is on this plastic rubbish? Let us save the discussion on the means of exchange for another day. 1690 and the Bank of England swindle. Worth us having a dusty search through the archives certainly. By then, however, money may be completely invisible...

Did it ever exist? Welcome to the Cashless Society...

NEXT ISSUE It would be good to be back to 12 pages. We can manage that with your encouragement and support.

Sad news of the death of HRH Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh, 1921-2021. An extraordinary man.

Apologies if the proof reading for this issue has not been up to our usual standards. This is not down to our proof reader who due to time constraints did not receive a hard copy to work from.

The Link

The Link has been formed to aid victims of State anti-race laws. Since the implementation of various measures, ostensibly to combat the genuine menace of terrorism, many patriotic dissidents have been arrested and harassed as a deliberate act of political policy.
The Link has been organised to help ensure that those accused of "Hate/Thought Crime" obtain the full support of our freedom loving community throughout and beyond their current ordeal.
We urgently need full information about anyone who has been imprisoned or threatened by the ever encroaching 'Orwellian' State.
We also require funds and volunteers.
